

JourneyConferences.com

Moving Toward Wholeness

A Journey Conference in NC

October 15-18, 2009

with special Pre-Conference Events October 14, 2009

www.journeyconferences.com (336) 545-1200 BSNS Hours EST

* indicates Jungian Analyst

Rev. John L. Martin, D. Min. and Carolyn Martin, M.R.E.
Pre-Conference Event: The Language of the Soul

John received his Doctor of Ministry degree from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary. Carolyn has a B.S. Degree in Elementary Education and a Master's Degree in Religious Education. John and Carolyn led the Introduction to Jung weekend seminars for the former "Journey into Wholeness" for twenty years and served on the Board of Directors of that organization for several years. John was also a frequent presenter at the Journey into Wholeness Conferences.

Reverend J. Pittman McGehee, D.D. *
Presentations: The Invisible Church & Finding Spirituality Where You Are Workshop: "The Hero's Journey"

Pittman is an ordained priest in the Episcopal Church, served for 11 years, as Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, located in the center of downtown Houston. In demand as a distinguished lecturer and speaker in the fields of psychology and religion, he is also an author, book reviewer and an award-winning published poet.

Tess Castleman,*
Presentation and Workshop: The Tribal Dream: How Dreams & Synchronicities Present Evidence of a Communal Unconscious

Tess is a Diplomate Jungian Analyst (Zurich, 1989), a training analyst with the C. G. Jung Institute of Zurich and a member of the Curatorium. She is responsible for the International English Block Training in Zurich where she lives part of the year. She also lives in Dallas, Texas, where she has an analytic practice for adults and groups.

Barry Williams, M. Div., PsD*
Presentation: In the Symbol the World Itself is Speaking: Earth and Psyche in Balance & Group Dreamwork
Workshops: Group Dreamwork

Barry is a Jungian Analyst in private practice near Taos, NM. Known internationally for his lectures, workshops, wilderness pursuits, work with indigenous cultures and dreamwork, he has served on the Adjunct Faculty at Pacifica Graduate Institute, has been a long-time presenter at the former "Journey Into Wholeness", and for over two decades a leader of the Temagami Vision Quest in Canada.

The Rev. Don M. Wardlaw, PhD.
Pre-Conference Event: Feeding On The Depths: Nourishing Your Congregation On Fillet of Soul
Workshop: Spelunking The Shadow: Discovering Power Alongside Fear.....in the Dark

Rev. Don M. Wardlaw, PhD. is J.G.K. McClure Professor Emeritus of Preaching and Worship, McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago. In the early 1990's, Don became deeply interested in the work of C. G. Jung and began to formulate a Jungian oriented homiletic. He is presently working on a book, "Preaching From Within."

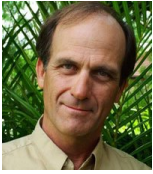

Adele Tyler, M.S.S.
Understanding Psychological Type(s): Through the Looking Glass of The Myers-Briggs Type Indicator

Adele has a master's degree in sociology, Myers-Briggs certification, and life coach certification through the Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara. She has studied Jungian psychology, formally and informally, since 1989, at Vanderbilt University, the Jung Seminar in Zurich, and various workshops and seminars. She now works primarily as a Myers-Briggs consultant and life coach in Nashville, TN.

Dorothy Campbell B.Sc.N., M.P.N., *
Mandala: A Tool for Inner Work
Dorothy is a Jungian analyst who recently graduated from the International School of Analytical Psychology-Zurich. She received her B.Sc. in Nursing from McGill University, Montreal, and her Masters in Psychosocial Nursing from the University of Washington, Seattle.

Gregory Scott Sparrow, Ed.D., LPC; LMFT

A Peace You've Never Known: The Practice of Middle-of-the-Night Meditation as a Means of Grace

Scott is a psychotherapist, college professor, spiritual mentor, author, & fly fishing guide who lives on the shores of the Lower Laguna Madre of deep south Texas. In 1976, he wrote Lucid Dreaming -- Dawning of the Clear Light, which was based largely on his own experiences. It was the first book on lucid dreaming published in the U.S. and has been extensively cited and hailed as an early classic in this new field of dream theory.

Marilia Yokota, PhD*

Experiencing the Multi-Dimensionality of Time

Marilia is an Art Therapist and Jungian Analyst from São Paulo, Brazil, and trained at the C.G. Jung Institute in Zurich, Switzerland. She conducts an analytical practice for children, adolescents and young adults in São Paulo, and also leads workshops in art therapy and adolescent therapy practice internationally.

Lee Lawrence

"Awakening the Divine" -- Jung and Kundalini

Lee is an internationally known medical/psychological intuitive. His scientific research into the existence of the human soul, and how it works, bridges the gap between science, psychology and religion.

Jeanne M. Schul

Dancing the Chakras

Jeanne is a Dance Specialist at Berry College in the Departments of Kinesiology and Theatre in which she coordinates the dance program and serves as Artistic Director of the Berry College Dance Troupe. She is completing her Ph.D. in Depth Psychology at Pacifica Graduate Institute and is currently engaged in research for her dissertation, Creating Dances from Dreams: Embodying the Unconscious through Choreography.

Linda Yael Schiller, MSW, LICSW

The Mysticism of Kabbalah: The Connection to Jung and a Kabbalistic/Jungian Framework for Dreamwork

Linda is a spiritual and body/mind psychotherapist, consultant, and trainer based in Watertown, MA. She served as a Professor of Clinical Social Work at Boston University for 20 years, and now is devoting her time to her clinical and consulting practice, her family, her garden, her dreamwork, and her writing projects.

Donnamarie Flanagan, LCSW*

Longing and the Transcendent Function

Donnamarie is a Jungian Analyst, a member of the faculty of the C. G. Jung Institute of Chicago, she is past Director of Training. Her abiding interest is in the field of longing between the personal self and the Self from which it came. She has a private practice in Lafayette, Indiana.

Dr. Robert A. Keller, Ph.D.

Participating in the Great Process of Being

Award-winning professor, Dr. Robert A. Keller, Ph.D. has graduate credentials from St. John's, Notre Dame and Wayne State in Theology, Sociology and Education. He has been a teacher for over fifty years, published several books and articles, and has lectured worldwide.

Randy Siegel

Stand in Your Power! Become the Full Expression of All You Are

Randy utilizes a proprietary process that facilitates self-discovery to clarify personal perspective, true purpose, and professional image. This process transforms men and women into highly motivated leaders who are more charismatic spokespeople and ambassadors for the organizations they serve.

Registration & Additional Information about this conference and pre-conference events can be found at www.journeyconferences.com. A variety of Workshops and Special Events will be described there also.

No Internet Connection? Contact the Registrar, Tom Lane, at 336-545-1200 during normal business hours EST. Earlybird rates may apply, so hurry and reserve your space today!